No Indiscretion.

A press dispatch was sent out Tuesday, in which it was stated that Comma derignar, who made so many friends in litchmond, as a commander of the Monitor fleet just below this city, but now commands the gunboat Bennington, had run his cholera-infested ship so near to the ship Warr me as to endanger the lives of her passengers."

Information has beer received direct from the Bennington to the effect that there never was but one case of cholera on board that ship. This was the ease of a man who was taken about 7 o'clock in the evening and died at 8 o'clock next morning. The body was buried in two hours and every vestige of clofing worn by the man and those who attended him was quickly burned. The ship put out to sea and was thoroughly fumigated. This information was received before the press telegram above referred to was sent out, and was not given, with any reference to the Warrimo's charge. The fact seems to be, therefore, that when the Bennington passed the Warrimo, there wasn't a case of cholera on board.

ARMENIAN CONSULATES.

PROBABLY ABANDONED.

Massacres Reported-Italy Will Act in Concert With Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Robert S. C. Chilton and Dulany Hunter, of the State Department, who were sent by this Government to establish new United States consulates at Erzeroum and Harpot, in Armena, have been recalled by Secretary Olney, and it is believed that the project that they were dispatched for will be abandoned, officials of the State Department are exceedingly reticent about the matter, and will admit nothing further than that Messrs. Chiton and Hunter than that Messrs. Chiton and Hunter had informed the department of their return to Constantinople.

Whether or not they are now en route to the United States or have been directed to come home, cannot be ascertained. If may be that they are in Constantinople making a second endeavor to secure exquaturs from the Turkish Government, but there is good ground for the beliet that Mr. Chitton, at least, has been ordered back to Washington.

dered back to Washington.

A 74IN PITORI.

The practical failure of the mission on which Messrs. Chilton and Hunter were sent, is due to the difficulties which the Turkish Government placed in their way. They spent some time in Constantinole in a vain endeavor to secure exequaturs, and finally decided to push towards Erzeroum. They reported that their business was in the Interest of the American massacre, and Mr. Chilton forwarded a report on what he saw and learned to the department. This report has not been made public.

The journey between Trebizond and Erzeroum must be made by road, and the two consular officers expected to have a guard of Turkish soldiers on the route. It is probable that they failed to secure the granting of this courtesy, and this, in view of the great danger to forefreets in that part of Armenia, is probably one of the reasons why the department deemed their return necessary. Without exequaturs, and having no official standing with the Government, the position of Messrs, Chilton and Hunter would have been exceedingly perilous, and in addition they could be of little use to this Government.

The dispatch sent to the Cologne Gazette from Constantinople about the massacre of Christian teachers between Trebizond and Erzeroum created much interest at the State Department. Secretary Giney, but it was stated that the conference had not been followed by any orders for increasing the American naval force in Svrian waters.

ADMIRAL Salf-Eldoc Armenta at the

the shadow of a doubt, for instance, that the maintenance of the Villis station during the fiery trials of the past year, the exemption of some of its members personally from molestation, and perhaps the preservation of their lives, has been due, under the providence of God, to the repeated, sustained, and vigorous action of Mr. Terrell at the Sublime Porte.

"It is known to all that the United States Government forbids its representatives from interfering in any way in behalf of Ottoman subjects, no matter how strongly humanitarian consideration might seem to require such interference. But in overy case where an Armenian naturalized citizen has been molested Mr. Terrell has interfered sharply and effectively to prevent punishment on suspicion of contending with revolutionary schemes of men who cannot be proved to have violated any law."

Mr. Evans is a very able preacher, and is widely known in the State.

Dr. Hains has almost loet his voice, and this was one of the reasons why he resigned his charge. He is much beloved by his congregation, who will part with him with great reluctance.

Rev. J. M. Pilcher, D. D.; chairman of the joint missionary committees of the G. Broughton, W. W. Hamilton, and E. P. Pollard, appointed at Alexandria to arrange a programme for the conference, has prepared a most interesting one. The conference will continue for two days.

Captain T. F. Heath, of the Peteraburg Grays, this morning received a telegram from General Phillips. brigadier commanding, to hold his company ready for call, but saying that it was not necessary to assemble them until further orders.

On receipt of the telegram. Captain Heath sent a special messenger to notify the members of the Peteraburg Grays to hold themselves in readjuces and not to leave the city.

It is presumed from the foregoing telegram that the Grays will be sent to Lunenburg Courthouse as guard to the Lunenburg Courthouse as guard to the Lunenburg murderers, should they be taken there.

Speculators are scouring the county in quest of hey, which seems to bespeak a rise in the price of that commodity. The election in Orange was entirely satisfactory to Democracy. The small vote in the county is due to the fact that Mr. Tallaferro had no effective opposition, When there is need for action the Democrats of Orange have always been equal to the occasion.

It expels the impurities from the body by means of the bowels, kidneys, and skin, and imparts vigor and tone to the stomach—upon whose proper action all our strength, activity, and endurance depends. A Delegation From Norfolk Asks That He he Returned There.

The love which the Granby-Street congregation have for their pastor, Rev. Dr. A. Coke Smith, was strikingly exemplified yesterday, when a large delegation of Norfolk's business men arrived in the city for the purpose of requesting Bishop Galloway and the elders to allow their pastor to return to them for a brief time. Dr. Smith has served three years and five months as pastor of Granbytime. Dr. Smith has served three years and five months as paster of Granby-Street church, and according to the rules of the conference, he cannot serve there more than four yars. For that reason, it is asked that he be allowed to return there for seven months, thus completing his four years.

It is probable than an answer will be given the delegation to-day.

A theatre-going gentleman said last night.
